

GA ERA CAMERA CLUB

Do you enjoy taking and editing photos?

The GA ERA Camera Club was founded to:

- Further photography as an art form,
- Provide venues for social and recreational contact, and
- Provide opportunities for growth and broadened horizons in the photographic disciplines through introduction of techniques, provision of information, and challenges to practice photography

Free to visit at any of the competitions.

See calendar on gacameraclub.com website for schedule. Request to be on email list to receive notifications of meeting invites. See website for additional info or view the gallery.

All skill levels can join the club, including beginners. Open to active and retired GA personnel. Joining allows you to participate and submit your works of art.

Competition events are held at noon. Remote call-in options also available.

Contact Us if interested in joining or simply request to receive the email newsletter.
